PRESS RELEASE

October 11, 1977

Concordia University will host a Quebec University Athletic Association Intramurals Conference, Wednesday, October 19th at the Loyola Campus. The meeting will feature Dr. Al Brawn of the University of Calgary and will begin at 10 a.m. in the Conference Room of the Campus Centre, on the Loyola Campus.

The Conference is open to all interested participants and will feature two lectures by Dr. Brawn, followed by a question and answer period. Brawn will open the agenda at 10 a.m. with a talk on "What's Happening in Canadian Intramurals?". In the afternoon, his topic will be "The Emerging Intramural Philosophy" followed by a question and answer period.

Dr. Brawn is one of Canada's leading experts on college intramurals. The University of Calgary professor is presently the CAHPER Intramural Recreation Chairman, also Vice-Chairman and Projects Chairman of the newly-formed Canadian Intramural Recreation Association.

The registration fee for Q.U.A.A. members will be $10, and $20 for non-league applications. For further information contact Guy Delisle at 374-4700.
